THE MASONIC RELIEF ASSOCIA-TION DRAWING IN NORFOLK .- As many of our readers were interested in the drawing of the Masonic Relief Association, which took place at the Opera House in Norfolk, Va., Tuesday night, we publish the following abridged account thereof:

A large crowd was present to witness the drawing. Less than one-fourth of the tickets were sold; $62,-500 were given away—$12,000 more than the Association was compelled to give. The prizes were, of course, scaled three-fourths, making the capital prize $7,500. Colonel L. D. Starke briefly explained the objects of the drawing and the causes that led to the one-fourth drawing. The stage was filled with prominent citi zens. The following were the impor

The people along the track of the late tornado in Alabama are reported to be suffering greatly for want of the necessaries of life.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.-On the THE RALEIGH GAMB- the decency of the city. Are LING DENS!

> The Light-Fingered Gentry Disturbe ed. Their Operations Broken Up. Some of Them Put to Flight and One Brought to Trial.

A FARCICAL TRIAL-SUPPOS-ED CONNIVANCE OF OFFI-CIALS, AND ESCAPE OF PRISONER WHILST ON TRIAL.

We noticed yesterday morning the existence of a gambling den on Wilmington street, operated in the open day and flaunted before the public regardless of the decency, morality, law or order of the city, and yesterday we had an interesting secured of day we had an interesting sequel of the whole matter.
On Wednesday night Magistrate

David A. Wicker, at the instance of Quent Bryant, who made oath to the character of the gambling done by the parties named, issued a warrant for the arrest of Harry Gilbert alias Harry Lawrence and Joseph Mea alias Bill Mea, charged with gambling in the confines of the city. The warrant confines of the city. The warrant was given Policeman J. M. Forrest, but he being off duty for the evening, asked to be excused, for the reason he did not want to make enemies. It was then given to Policemen Butler and Whitaker, colored, who, however, did not serve it, under advisement that it was not properly drawn up, the aliases making it indefinite. Quent Bryant was then ordered to make the arrest, and this order was endorsed by Mayor Holden to the following effect:

"Capt. King-Look into this mat-ter and see that the same is executed when the police force is called on.
Jos. W. HOLDEN, Mayor."

In the meantime the gambling den had been closed three hours carlie than usual-they had been informed of the issuing of the warrant, by whom the public must draw its inference.

The warrant in the hands of Bryant could have been served at ten o'clock-the man Harry Gilbert alias Lawrence was on Hargett street, and Bryant seeing Chief of Police King in Harrison & Batchford's, showed him the warrant and asked his assistance. Capt. King declined to do so, and took the warrant from Mr. Bryant, claiming that it was intended for him.

As a consequence, the principal bird was allowed to escape, which he did during the night or yesterday morning, leaving only his assistant or agent in the city.

Yesterday morning we investigated the matter, and Magistrate Wicker placed the warrant in the hands of Jno. R. Caswell, colored Constable, who soon succeeded in bringing before him the Assistant Joe Mea, alias Bill Mea. This was 12 m., but the Magistrate himself being too much under the influence of liquor to push matters, the trial was not commenced (under apparent delays) until 2 o'clock, when Messrs. Thos. R. Purnell and Thos. M. Argo appeared for the prosecution, and Col. George V. Strong for the defendant. And now commenced a trial which, for its richness and general character, we have never seen surpassed. Three and a half hours were spent in the examination and cross-examination of witnesses which examination developed the fact that gambling, under the guise for some two months on Wil-mington street, deluding the unthe city; and that while the princi-pal of the affair had been allowed to escape by the inefficiency or conni-vance of the police force—who had been openly gambling in the den— only the miserable tool of the man Lawrence had been captured, and that, too, by a colored Constable. Not the least uninteresting feature of a gift concert, which proved only a sham, had been openly practiced wary and degrading the morals of of the trial was the production of a witness by the defence, one Daven-port, who acknowledged himself a professional gambler, and who has been interested in all the gambling affairs that have been preying upon the innocent people of the State at the late Fairs. He endeavored to sustain the character of the game, but we rather think he was too great an expert to hold good his own character. At 5:30 o'clock the examination of witnesses was concluded, the acting Magistrate having become sufficiently cool to look at things in a more practical light. Mr. Purnell opened the argument in a speech of half an hour, charging that the game played was one of chance. This the Court acknowledged, and asked that the counsel instruct him as to the guilt or complicity of the assistant of Lawrence, who was on trial. Mr. Purnell contended he was equally guilty with the principal.

At six o'clock the prisoner retired from the Court room in company with policeman Bob Crosson, col., with the acknowledged purpose of taking a drink. Col. Strong commenced his argument for the defence, and had been speaking some ten minutes, when Crosson returned into the room alone and much disconfited, and announced to the Court that his prisoner had escaped. Crosson had accompanied him to his room at the Carolina House, and while Bob waited in the passage the return of Mea. the latter found an easy egress down the back stairway, and so made his escape. We will do Crosson the justice to say we do not believe he con nived at the escape. The Court felt itself much insulted by this escapade of its prisoner, and while a big guf-faw pervaded the Court room "his Couriship" looked much disgruntled, though we do not know the extent of his sorrow, because of the fact that he had spent a portion of the morning in the private room of the pris-oner, which was the cause of his condition throughout the day.

On the motion of Mr. Argo, the case was postponed until 11 a. m. this morning, and Crosson was instructed to use all diligence in the recapture of his prisoner, which prisoner, in our opinion, will never be heard of in these parts again.

And now for a little moralizing in connection with this affair. gambling den, of the lowest order, under the protection of a license as a 'gift concert" affair, has been allowed for two months openly on one of our principal streets, and our city authorities have not only been aware of its existence, but have gambled at it themselves day after day, when it was known that it was a positive violation of the law, and an insult to such things to be allowed in this community, citizens of Ruleigh? Is this the Reform that was promised us last Spring? Let the city wards be re-arranged, and let an honest and God-fearing Government be given us in May next. We demand a removal of the men in office who can allow and connive at such damnable outrage as are almost daily perpetrated in our midst.

GALLANTRY REWARDED .- The War Department has presented medals to Sergeant Woodhull, pri-vates Harrington and Roth and vates Harrington and Roth and scouts Chapman and Dixon, of Gen.
Miles' command, for gallant conduct in resisting an attack by Indans in the early fall. The story of their bravery has been previously told, but is worth recounting. These five men, with a courade who was killed, were appropried by 120 Indians who men, with a comrade who was killed, were surprised by 120 Indians, who fired upon them, stampeding their horses and wounding every one of their number, one fatally. They dug a shallow trench with their knives in the soil and held their assailants at bay until night time, when the latter withdrew, carrying off the latter withdrew, carrying off the dead bodies of fifteen of their number. The soldiers used their revolvers several times in repelling the charges of their foes. They had no food and no water but that which fell into their trench in drizzling rain during the fight. Their gallantry has been very properly rewarded by the War Department.

POLONIUS' ADVICE TO

Costly thy Habit as thy Purse can

Buy." old w deed weepfet It will be remembered by Miskespearan readers in the play of Hamlet, the advice of Polonius to his son Laertes, who was just in the act of leaving Denmark for a journey to France, wherein he said:

"Costly thy habit as thy purse can buy but in texpressed in lancy; rich not guidy—for the "pparel of proclaims the man," dc., dc.

On the first day of January, 1875, the names of all subscribers to the News who may not have paid in advance, both upon our Daily and Weekly lists, will be dropped from our mail books, though we hope each and every one dropped will renew their subscription. We shal! regret to part with a number of our readers, but this system has been rendered imperative by the law requiring the prepayment of postage.

The Daily News has been greatly enlarged, and the prepayment of postage makes it $1.20 cheaper than formerly-and yet we have added nothing to its price.

Daily, per annum, Weekly, per annum, JORDAN STONE, Manager.

THE Virginia Legislature adjourned for four days for the Christmas holidays. It met again on Monday, and has been meeting regularly each day since, with no quorum in either house and no business transacted. In the contest between Christmas and patriotism, the former is the decided winner.

TRUE to its instincts the Washington Republican strongly advocates the re-election of MATT CAR-PENTER to the Senate from the State of Wisconsin. Nobody denies him the possession of brilliant and versatile talents, but his morals have been the subject of severe criticism and censure by papers of his own party.

THAT member of Congress, who speaking of General Banks and the Democratic nomination for the Speakership of the House of Representatives of the 44th Congress, de clared that "he might sing with us but could not lead the choir "expressed our position upon that matter exactly. Let the honors which the Democracy of the nation has to bestow be given to Democrats only.

THE SUB-COMMITTEE of the Committee of Ways and Means, which has been engaged in the investigation of the affairs of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, have recently "struck a lead," which promises to result in the disclosure of some most damaging facts. It seems that while the bill granting a subsidy to the company was before Congress, one IRWIN was employed to do lobby work in its favor, and had placed to his credit checks of the Company to the amount of $750,000. The committee has been seeking information as to the manner in which this large sum was distributed. During the investigation in New York last, Tuesday, the evidence disclosed the fact that $115,000 of this amount had been paid to W. S. King, late postmaster of the House of Representatives and member-elect to the next Congress.

We trust that the examination will be vigorousiy pushed, and that every one connected with the swindle will be exposed and punished. CAROLINA HOUSEHOLD MAGA-ZINE.

We have number one of volume one of Bonitz's Carolina Household Magazine, and we speak with candor when we declare it a credit, not only to its editor and publisher, but to the State as well. It is a model of neatness and elegance typographically, is filled with choice and valuable reading matter, and its representations are in the best style of art. In sincere admiration of the pluck shown by our friend in making such a venture, in these times of pecuniary stringency, we bid him God speed in this good work, and hope for him more than the realization of his wildest dreams of suc-

The present number is embellished by a portrait of Ex-Governor VANCE, which is accompanied by a brief, but well written sketch of his remarkable career. Future numbers will contain pictures of others endeared to North Carolina people by years of valuable service done them. The price of the Magazine is $2 a year, and we carnestly and dially commend it to the patronof our readers.

President is implacable and is determined to pursue the plan of

SHERIDAN.

Sheridan has gone to Louisiana. Why he has been selected for command, in the complicate and delicate condition of affairs there is too apparent, when the reasons for the seection are read in the light of the remark of the President that in case of further necessity for military interference he would send there a commander "who would hurt somebody." Dark and bloody and wicked work is to be done there, if the oppressed citizens of the State shall attempt to redress their wrongs and secure the control of their government: and who, in all the service, is so fit for that work as he, who at the head of his troopers, with the sword in one hand and a torch in the other, rode through the Valley of Virginia carrying desolation and suffering wherever he went? Emory, it seems, though prompt to obey the orders of his superiors, has some conscience left and hesitates to strike because he knows the blow to be undeserved: McDowell, in whose department the State is, is too unready to meet the demands of the anticipated situation; HAN-COCK, who is both soldier and gentleman, exhibited too much regard for constitutional rights and personal liberty, when he commanded in the South: but SHERIDAN-SHERIDAN. with his heart of steel and hand of iron, is, in every way qualified to do the crime. No compunction of conscience will stay his hand; no sense of pity for the wrong and injustice done an offending people will touch his heart. Deaf to the teachings of truth and right, insensible to the promptings of sympathy for the objects of affliction and oppression he is the fittest possible instrument for the consummation of the scheme which GRANT, at the instigation of the devils own whelp, Atorney General WILLIAMS, contemplates for the commission of the foulest wrong ever inflicted, by ruler upon an undefended people. Great and grievous are the, ills, which the people of Louisiana have porne and may yet be required to ufier; but we join our wish to those dready expressed that they will submit with all possible grace to an authority which they can neither defy nor resist.

LOUISIANA. Affairs in this unfortunate State

row interesting and critical. The action of the returning board, by which the control of the legislature is given to the Republican party, although by a fair and honest count the Democrats would have a majority in that body, has aroused the indignation of the people of the State : and threats have been made that if the Democrats elect are denied their seats upon the meeting of the Assembly, resort will be had to violent means to induct them. In the meantime the Administration at Washington is giving all possible encouragement to the Republican manipulators, who have concocted the vile scheme by which the people of that commonwealth are to be denied all just and honest representation. Attorney-General WILLIAMS, who has been so conspicuous in all the devil's work that has been done there for the two years past, is reported to have declared. in a recent cabinet meeting, that the recent proceedings by which the Conservatives were swindled were entirely legal and legitimate; and the President, breathing fury against that unfortunate people, has declared his purpose to uphold the bastard government forced upon them by Federal bayonets, and to administer swift and severe punishment upon those who shall question its authority or seek to oppose it. The purpose of the Admisistration is apparent. The great necessity of the Republican party is the occurrence of disturbances in the Southern States. The recent losses of the party can, in the opinion of its leaders, be repaired by the solidification of the former Republican vote, and this result can only be secured by reviving the enmity and district that have heretofore existed between the two sections. To this end the efforts of the President and his followers are directed: and nothing would so gratify them as an attempt upon the part of the Louisiana Democracy to displace the Kelloge government by force.

In view of this wish of the Republican party, we sincerely trust that the brave and heroic people of our sister State will possess their souls in patience for yet a little while longer. We know that the wrongs they suffer are galling to their pride and injurious to their material well-doing, but patience under these grievances and abstention from any act of violence are the surest, speediest means for relief from them. They have nothing to make by a resort to force. The treatment heretofore adopted; and in support of that plan, he is prepared to make immediate and vigorous use of the Federal forces. Against that force resistance by the people of a prostrate State would be fool-hardy and useless. It would lead to other and more rigorous measures of oppression and then the condition of that people would be ten-fold more unendurable than the present. For these reasons we sincerely trust that there will be no scene of violent, forcible resistance made by the Democracy of Louisiana. If they will bear the ills they have as best they may, the day of deliverance will come by the command of the whole American peo-

Going to Sleep in a Theatre. A gentleman who visited the opera house on Monday night was unconsciously an actor in a side drama of his own making, in the following manner: He occupied a balcony seat quite aloof from others, where in his retirement, he fell asleep, and slept quite as soundly, if not as long as Rip Van Winkle on Catskills. Through all the clatter of the orchestra, the storm of plaudits, and the usual jam and rush for a speedy exit after the final dropping of the cur-tain, even after chanticleer had pro-

He awoke with a sense of extreme chilliness and a decided impression of the surrounding chaotic gloom. He reached out for the pillow on which he supposed he had been ly-ing, but found only a narrow seat, on which he was sitting upright. A thousand thoughts rushed through his mind. Perhaps he had been kidnapped or drugged, or waylaid and heaten and left for dead. Search ing his pocket, he found a broken match (it was more precious at this moment than a rare gem of the ocean) which he lighted with much caution, est it might prove a failure, when he discovered that he was in the opera house, and that "the lights had fled and all but him departed."

The question, "How shall I get out?" was then all-absorbing; for the gentleman knew full well that the watchmen who were on duty would "shoot him on the spot" for a burglar if he made a move. So he yelled "Fire! Fire!" at the top of his voice, and waile the watchmen were endeavoring to ascertain whence came the alarm, the gentleman "rose up and desired to explain" the cause of his presence at the opera house. "All's well that ends well," aid the gentleman, as he left the watchmen; but he found on reaching the street lamp that his new hat had been stolen and an old one left in its stead. -Troy Whig.

DEATH OF THE WIFE OF BISHOP POTTER.-Margaret Atchison Pollock, wife of Right Rev. Horatio Potter. Bishop of the Diocese of New York, died at the residence of her brother, Mr. William Pollock, in Falmouth, Virginia, at midnight on Christmas Day last. She was by birth a Scotch lady, and at the time of her death had attained her sixtyfifth year. She first met the Bishop during his tour of Scotland in 1852 and while he was still rector of St. Peter's Church, Albany, of which Bishop Doane was recently pastor. The then Miss Pollock, who had friends residing in this country, visited the city for the first time in 1853. Her marriage to the Bishop took place in the same year, the ceremony being performed in Trinity Chapel.

-N. Y. Times, Dec. 29. A NEW COUNTERFEIT FIVE DOL-LAR BILL.—The Richmond papers announce that for several days past some one has been in that city passing off counterfeit bills of the denom ination of five dollars on the "Traders' National Bank of Chicago. The work on the bill is well executed, and is liable to deceive any but the most expert. Close observation, however, will detect a certain roughness about the vignette in each corner and a certain sharpness of the features not found in the genuine. Some of the bills have been thrown out of the banks there. It might probably be well for our banks and citizens to be on the look-out for these bills, as some of them may reach them.

Mobile is rejoicing in the election of its Democratic and Conservative municipal ticket by a handsome majority. The Register of that city congratulates the people that Mobile is now in line with the party that controls the State—the party of tax-payers, and says: "The victory has been complete, and we need have no fear that the threats of Federal intervention to overthrow the will of our people under the law, will be attempted to be executed. The people of Alabama and the people of Mobile won the victory and they will wear

The Secretary of the Interior was yesterday informed by the War Department that a company of troops has been started by General Ord from the Spotted Tail Agency to overhaul the party of twenty-one miners who stole in from the Missouri River to the Black Hills reservation, and who were recently pursued but not overtaken by Indian Agent Bingham with a small force of soldiers and Indians. General Ord's action was taken in accordance with General Sheridan's order of last September for the protection of this

It is exceedingly desirable to the Radical party that there shall be a row-somewhere. people of the North have grown tired of horrors, and it will take some extraordinary case of violence and disorder to wake them up and fire their minds against the South. Indeed. we may suspect that such an outburst of passion in the South is deemed by the Radical party necessary to their salvation. Their measures are taken with a view to such a trouble. -Richmond Dispatch.

About two weeks since Mrs. Peggy Hanger, living on her farm in Riv-erheads township, Augusta county, Va., died at the age of 11 years. She had lived in the same house for more than a century. Her husband was a merchant or peddler, and one day about half a century ago started out to buy goods, and was never heard of afterward. It was believed at the time that he had been murdered. His widow continued to carry on the little farm, which she has owned ever since. The negro exodus from Georgia continues. The Atlanta papers daily announce the departure of car-loads of them from that town. The majority of them go to Mississippi, but many to Texas. THE STATE EXECUTIVE COM-

We are requested to call the attention of the members of the State Executive Committee of the Conservative party to the call for a meetng of the Committee in this city, on Wednesday, the 20th day of January next. The State Committee is composed of the Executive Committees of the several Congressional Districts; and the interests of the party imperatively demand the attendance of every member who can possibly be present. Matters of vital importance will come up for consideration. We are requested further to say that the members of the Conservative press of the State are cordially and earnestly invited to be present, to assist the State Committee in its deliberations.

Let us have a full meeting and a frank, free conversation as to what is best to be done to give permanency to the triumph of August last.

THE MIND DEPENDENT ON THE BODY .-THE MIND DEFENDENT ON THE BODY.—
Hypocondria is a far mere common malactive than is generally supposed. It has its degree, it is true, progressing from mental depression, or the "blues," to mental hallucination; but they are all forms of the same malady. It is a significant fact that this mental airment is invariably secompanied by dyspepsia and nervousness, and the fact that it readily yields to the alterative action of Hostetter's stomach Bitters, which are peculiarly adapted to the eradiwhich are peculiarly adapted to the eradication of indigestion and nerveous debili cation of indigestion and nerveous debili-ty, proves that it originates in those com-plaints. It will thus be seen how depen-dent the mind supon the body for the preservation of a cheerful equilibrum, and also how readily the causes of mental gloom may be ren oved. There is no surer or pleasanter way of shaking off a fit of depression brought on by ladigestion, than by swallowing a dose or two of this agreea-ble medicine.

That a great social reformation is inder way is indicted by the fact nat fashionable women are making their own dresses this winter and confessing it too.

A Pleasant Word for "Old Maids." One of the pleasantest of Miss Thackeray's shorter papers is on the consolations of old maids—a vigorous and in the main just defense of an aspersed class. She inquires if marriage is everything in the world; if the sun does not shine for the unmarried: the flowers bloom: the spring breezes blow soft and balmy; if there is no work for an old maid in the vast universe: no occupation: no tasks which bring blessing, comfort, peace enjoyment, delight and happiness' And all of these questions she very heartily answers in the affirmative There is at present in England an increasing number of women who do not marry, and who apparently wish not to marry. They deliberately devote themselves to literature, to teaching, to some trade, generally an artistic one, at any rate to some occupation that gives a livelihood and tends to culture, and this they choose for life. They do not seem to be thought out of place; but, on the contrary, they move into fit places in the great social organism, easily and naturally, and are accepted without remark. A late article in one of the leading papers noted the fact that almost an entire change has taken place in this country in current speech concerning unmarried women who are past thirty; that whereas, twenty years ago, and always before, they were called "old maids," and the phrase was a term of reproach, now, it is rarely ever used, and the reproach which used to be cast upon such persons has almost entirely passed away.—Balt. Gazette. Kleptomania is a very singular disease, and is beyond the medicaments of art. Not long since a barrister of some standing in London was caught stealing books from the library and using them. In New Jersey a young theological student was detected with piles of purloined books in the church estry room. The sad death of the Rev. Mr. Coombs is only one of many that shame and fear of detection are overwhelming. He said the truth when he exhibited thirty dollars in possession, and said, "I do not know why I took the book; I had money to purchase it." Be charitable to these persons. It is not ordinary theft. It is a monomania, known and classified Rich persons have been so afflicted with it that some cases a regular bill has been pt at certain stores, and the things ey hid about their person have been charged to them by the sharp-eyed clerks, deputed especially with the consent of the family to watch them, in one man the mania is for books; other for everything light and portable. In woman the malady assumes its strongest form in dry goods and jewelry stores. The disease has well known as to have a ice in the regular medical treatises, and even the latest dictionaries give the word: "Kleptomania, a species of insanity which manifests itself in an unresistable propensity to pilfer or

This is the sort of notice that an Oregon lecturer gets from his village Col. Jo. Meck has uldered his jaw bone, and will tell the people more than they ever dreamp of about mining."

A BRAVE JERSEY BOY .- On Sun day last a dozen boys were playing on the ice at Trenton, New Jersey, when a portion suddenly gave wa and precipitated a large boy named David Geisneicher into deep water. He shouted for help, and a companion named William Parks, under fifteen years of age, ran to his assistance, grasping his hand as he was sinking the last time, by great exertion he succeeded at last in dragging him upon firmer ice, where he was safe. His rescuer, two years ago, caught a nemory of Mr. Jno. T. Davis, little girl whose foot was fast in a switch and pulled her loose just in time to save her from being crushed by a locomotive, which ran over a portion of his coat. Within a month from that time he plunged into the canal and brought the drowning brother of the girl to shore, making three lives he has been the means of saving.

The Brooklyn Argus, referring to the corrupt and high-handed man-ner in which the Radical returning board in Louisiana have acted in counting out the Conservative majority of the Legislature, says: charge, in self-defence, intimidation and all kinds of irregularities were practiced, and that in numerous cases few of the forms prescribed for the conduct of an election were complied with. The question will spontaneously occur to every mind-How should all this loosenes and irregularity enure to the detriment exclusively of a superior race least likely to have practiced them? The glaze is too thin to hide the guilt. However, the Congressional Committee, now in New Orleans, may possibly give some informatio on which the country and Cabinet may rely. The thimble-rigging and villainy of the Kellogg gang has been borne too long."

Sothern is to take up his residence in this country at the conclusion of his present London engagement.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEA WEED TONIC AND MANDRAKE PILLS.—These deservedly celebrated and popular medicines have effected a revolution in the healing art, and proved the saliacy of several maxims which have for many years obstructed the pro-ress of medical science. The false supposition that "Consumption is incurasupposition that "Consumption is incurable" deter ed physicans from attempting to find remedies for that disease, and patients afflicted with it reconciled themselves to death without making an effort to escape from a doom which they supposed to be unavoidable. It is now proved, however, that Consumption can be cured, and that it has been cured in a very great number of cases (some of them apparently desperate ones) by Schenck's Pulmonic Surupalon; and in other cases by the same medicine in connection with Schenck's Sca Weed Cenic and Mandrike Pills, one or both according to the requirements of the case.

A few days age Colonel Holland, the veteran millwright, was at work for Colonel Woodford in the mill at this place. The weather was cold, and Mr. Holland wore a heavy, longtailed coat. In moving about, the Colonel's coat was caught in a huge cog wheel which form the "power of the whole mill. He saw at once that to take off the coat was impossible—and then commenced the hardest ob of tearing ever known. Bracing himself against the headblock, he pulled one way, while the cogs were gradually drawing him closer and closer to a horrible death. He called loudly for help; and just "in the nick e" George Smith, a carpenter, who was at work close by, heard his cries and ran to see what was the matter. Taking in the whole situation at a glance, he drew his pocketknife as he ran, and with one stroke severed the cloth that was drawing Mr. Holland into the cog. He came not a moment too soon, for the Col-

Proposed Changes in the Revenue

The bill introduced in the House of Representatives last week, by Mr. Foster, to amend existing internal revenue laws, was prepared at the Office of Internal Revenue. It pro-poses to remedy defects in the arrangements of certain sections in the Revised Statutes, and, among other things provides that sections 3412 and 3413 be stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: That every person, firm, associa-tion, other than National bank associations, and every corporation, State bank or State banking association, shall pay a tax of ten per centum on the amount of their own notes, checks, drafts, orders, tokens or obligations, used for circulation and paid out by them. That every such person, firm, association, corporation, State bank or State banking association, and also every National banking association, shall pay a like tax of ten per centum on the amount of notes, checks, drafts, orders, tokens or obligations of any person, firm, association, other than a National banking association, or of any town, city or municipal corporation, used for circulation and paid out by them. It is proposed to amend section 3418 of the Revised Statutes by striking out a portion thereof and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

There shall be levied, collected and paid for and in respect of every bank check, draft, order or voucher thereof for the payment of any sum of money whatever drawn upon any bank banker or trust company by any per son who makes, signs or issues same, or for whose use or benefit the same is made, signed or issued, two cents.

In addition to the coming changes in the Treasury Department men-tioned in yesterday's dispatches, it is understood that General Spinner's retirement at an early day is looked for. This will be voluntary on the part of the veteran Treasurer of the United States, who has worn himself out in the public service, and now feels the need of ease and respite from official duties.

READ THE FOLLOWING TESTIMONIALS:

From Prot. W. G. Simmons, Wake Forest College, North Carolina. WAKE FOREST COLLEGE, N. C., October 4, 1873. Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir: We have for several months been using your Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on our College Building, and are well pleased with it. Though it was applied by one having no experience in such work, yet we have a good job. We shall continue to use it—believing that in point of economy, durability and facility of application, it is superior to any other pigment offered in the market.

W. G. SIMMONS.

From Messrs, Engelhard & Saunders, Editors and Proprietors Journal. We desire to cell especial attention to the advertisement of "Bradley's Patent En amel Paint." We can recommend it from a knowledge of its merits. Some of the em ployees of this office having purchased some of this paint from Mr. C. P. Knight, o Baltimore, have us d it and speak in the highest terms of it, after a trial of severa months. While it is as durable as ordinary paint, it has a much finer finish, and its cost and convenience will recommend it to all in need of paint.

From S. McGill, M. D.

THE PLAINS, FAQUIER Co., VA., Feb. 6, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Bir: The paint came safe to hand as ordered, 2 kegs, 5 gallon each, and 3 buckets, 1 gallon each. As practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks (not constant work) completed the house, two coats; the last coat lapplied thick, and it is now generally conceded that, for "enamel," like hardness, and body and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place. I have saved sixty-five dollars by the operation—which is an item just now with the Southern people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabbled in such stock as "testimonials," but I feel so forcibly the great adaptability of your 'Enamel Paint" to the wants of our people—in excellency of material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of its being "ready mixed," that I give you permission (if it is desirable to you) to make what use you think proper of this letter.

Very respectability and truly,

S. McGILL, M. D.

This well established Company was organized in 1869. It has issued about 5000 policies, and has paid in death claims more than $300,000. Its RESERVE secured for policy-holders, last July amounted to $400,000; leaving a surplus of $212,000.

Public attention is called to the fact that for every $100 of liabilities, it has $42 of assets. This unparallelled success should commend it to the people of this State.

Besides, it has deposited $150,000 for the exclusive benefit of policy-holders; and it now proposes to establish a local Board, and make loans on real estate security.

It takes insurance on all the approved plans, with but few if any restrictions.
